Dear Miss Reese:

Your letter of May 26th, with enclosures, has been received and I want to thank you for your thoughtfulness in furnishing copies of the special edition of "Masters of Deceit." I have brought them to Mr. Hoover's attention and he is most appreciative.

Sincerely yours,

by Clyde Tolson

NOTE: In January of this year, Constructive Action wrote
Mr. Hoover asking permission to proceed with arrangements with the publishers of "Masters of Deceit" for a special edition to be used in high school contests. Mr. Hoover advised them that he had no objections to such arrangements. Constructive Action has previously furnished us a copy of the special edition.

Dear Mr. Tolson:

You will recall that early this year you had a telephone conversation with [redacted] of this office about the possibility of having Pocket Books manufacture a special edition of MASTERS OF DECEIT by J. Edgar Hoover for an organization known as Constructive Action, Inc. The books were to be used in connection with an essay contest for high school juniors and seniors.

b6

I'm delighted to be able to send to you under separate cover twelve copies of the book which Pocket Books have supplied to us for Mr. Hoover.

I'm enclosing herewith two promotion pieces which have been used by the organization in connection with the contest which they are running.

I hope the books will reach you safely and that you will bring both the books and the promotion material to the attention of Mr. Hoover.

With good wishes,

Yours sincerely,

Marguerite J. Reese

I received your letter on June 5th, together with its enclosure, and want to thank you for your generous comments concerning "Masters of Deceit." I appreciate your thoughtfulness and the kind sentiments you expressed.

In view of your interest, I am enclosing some material on communism. Perhaps you would also like to read another of my books, "A Study of Communism," which is a comprehensive study of the development and expansion of communism throughout the world. This book may be available at your school or local library.

My Dear Mr. Hoover:

When your book "Masters of Deceit" first came out I had the pleasure of reading it and thought it to be very informative and interesting.

Recently I decided to enter the Constructive Action contest where your book was the basis, this time instead of reading it I started to study each item and your references I don't believe I'll ever get to the contest, as the more I study, the more amazed I become at how did I ever miss so much when I just read the book. Recently several teachers and I were discussing your book in the Social Studies Dept. I was informed by these teachers that this book is known as the BIBLE OF ANTI COMMUNISM, IT SEEMS that there is a popular saying among social study teachers that goes--- Lenin is to Communism as Hoover is to Americanism. Many of the teachers have expressed the private opinion that this book should be required reading one year and required study in all Problems of Democracy classes.

This summer I am doing research on juvenile law and the new Supreme Court decisions so that our club can publish a booklet for each of the 4,000 students in our high school. I only hope our booklet is half as informative as your book.

I would like to thank you and say GOD BLESS YOU for having the foresight and courage to write this book.

Respectfully

KEY CLUBBER OF THE YEAR JEFF HELLER

This year's recipient of the Key Clubber Award of the Year needs no introduction, he is well known for his outstanding devotion to the betterment of the club. No job was too big or too small--it was always fulfilled in an excellent manner.

To this scholar and gentleman the club members wish every success in his chosen career.

A SALUTE TO SENIORS

This is the time of the year that our sponser, Mr. Frank Rosenhocker, waivers between happiness and sadness. The seniors of his club are leaving. He has observed each one take their first step from student, to future citizen while a member of the club. Friendship and enduring respect were built throughout the years of association. When true friends must part, sadness becomes an element of the picture. The members and sponsors of the club wish each senior success, and the best of everything.

EDITORIAL

ONE HUNDRED AND NINETY - ONE YEARS YOUNG

In the not too distant future we will all be asked to an important birthday party. This memo is being written now, since school will be out, to remind you to circle the date on your calendar. By now you no doubt have plans already made, but then you probably forgot about the birthday. Not too many years ago, this was one party very few forgot. Ask any senior citizen about the fiery orations, the barrels of refreshments and the picnic table loaded with homemade goodies and the hundreds of other things that made it a swell party. Times have changed and our interest seems to have faded about this birthday.

No matter what anyone says, a country is made up of people: you are the people, therefore July 4th is not only our country's birthday but more importantly---yours. It is your birth of the freedom of speech, of religion and all the others. Therefore, it would only be fitting to take a minute out of this day in silent prayer out of respect to our ancestors who had the foresight and thoughtfulness to give us this birthday.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES

On Friday, May 26, members of the Club attended Jewish religious services at the Agudath Achim Synagogue. Rabbi Panitch and Cantor Kahan conducted the services. Afterward a buffet lunch was served in the Synagogue basement. The service was very impressive and educational.

No matter what we choose for our creed in life, if we remember to respect the other person's religion, whether we agree with it or not, then bigotry doesn't stand a chance.

SENIOR BARBECUE

On Saturday, May 27, the Annual Barbecue for the Seniors was held at Glendale. Apparently everything was successful from the amount of food that was consumed.

SUMMER BARBECUES

President Vince reports this summer has all the aspects of a good barbecue season. He hopes that all the members will turn out at each one of them. A good summer means a good treasury for next year.

APPOINTMENTS

President Vince announced the appointment of the chairmen of the following committees-----

Publications - Michael Armstrong
Community Service - Michael Armstrong
School Service - Gary Sturniolo

Religious - Gordon Cohen
Jeff Pannebaker was appointed Asst. Editor of the Newspaper.

College Boards

A reminder to those members that will be taking the College Board exams during the ensuing year-----

Dear Mr. Hoover,

This being the first letter I will have written to you, I do hope it is reaching your desk safely.

Your book, Masters Of Deceit is a masterpiece of literature. Your F.B.I. work is of such great magnitude that I can only say "thank you, and may the good Lord bless and keep you, for you are serving Him well".

Would you kindly send me information on Stokely Carmichael and Martin Luther King, Jr.? The American Legion Auxiliary District essay winner read this essay at our convention and I was shocked to hear the Civil Rights Act, etc. glorified. I want to send the judges and those who selected the judges some information on this act and these men. EX-102

The Director has received a letter postmarked June 13th from Private [REDACTED] who is presently stationed in Vietnam with the Marine Corps. He states he has had a talk with a friend of his who read the Director's book, "Masters of Deceit," and that he [REDACTED] feels he cannot afford to miss reading this book. He asks if it is possible to receive a copy of this book stating he will be happy to pay any cost. Private [REDACTED] also requests the address of Herbert A. Philbrick.

Bufiles contain nothing identifiable regarding [REDACTED]. Since he is serving his country in Vietnam and is, of course, unable to purchase a copy of the book there, it is believed the Bureau might wish to send a copy to Private [REDACTED] since it might help him better understand what he is fighting for.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

I have very much appreciated reading your book,
"Masters of Deceit."

I feel you have done a wonderful job with it in exposing Communism for what it is. I notice that in Part VI (22) headed, "What you can do about it," you do not mention anything about people writing to newspapers in the "letters columns, or articles which point up the dangers of Communism to free people. I have been doing this for several years now & although I rarely get comments-feel it is worth-while as someone must read them. Your book shows us what "busy beavers" these people are & really highlights our own sheer laziness & apathy.

I have been reading books exposing the "conspiracy" for about 20 years, & among them was Victor Kravchencos, "I chose Freedom," & "I chose Justice." I read in a news item that this author recently committed suicide & had been a bitter & disillusioned man. ~~His~~ These two books must have been read by millions of people everywhere, & I do feel his death is a real tragedy. Dear Mr. Hoover;

Recently a friend of mine and I read your book "Masters of Deceit." Both of us enjoyed your book immensely and we found it very informative.

The only copies we could get were paperback's. We wondered if you could do us the honor of autographing them for us.

My friends name is His grandfather defended "Leg's" Diamond in Albany many year's ago.

Enclosed is a stamped envelope.

Please autograph both edition's; one for and one for me possibly a future criminologist.

Dear [redacted]:

I have just begun reading Mr. Hoover's fantastic expose of Communism in his book, "Masters of Deceit", which you kindly sent to me in response to a contribution to your organization. I would offer what I hope is a constructive suggestion. Your committee may have received a similar suggestion; if so, I wish merely to emphasize what I think would add to the book's impact on the reader, particularly, the student.

The book could be categorized as a textbook, especially, since one very important function is to elicit the interest of students by providing scholarship awards for winning essays. For this and many other reasons, and because the Communist ideology is threatening all of mankind, a study of the subject should be broadened in every way possible. One way would be to publish revised editions to update the material in the form of additions to existing chapters under the appropriate chapter heading, and by additional chapters to cover new developments since 1957.

The idea presents many problems, of course, but none insoluble. Certainly, it would impress many students and other readers to realize they were reading the latest available material on the subject, for much has happened in the Communist world in the nearly ten years that have elapsed since publication of "Masters of Deceit" in 1958. Happenings such as the Red China split, Cuban crisis, and only recently in Carl Rowan's article in the September issue of Reader's Digest about Martin Luther King are just a few.

This idea is not new. Most textbooks are revised periodically, especially, those covering standard subjects like psychology, sociology, etc. And, in that sense, from my observation over the last three decades Communism has become a standard subject that should be studied constantly, daily, currently and perpetually and given the widest exposure because of its many ramifications and devious changes in objectives.

Mr. Hoover, one of the few really great Americans in the history of this nation, could supervise or delegate some or all of the updating to writers of his own selection. When he passes to his reward he will have chosen successors to carry on a gigantic and never-ending task of keeping the American people currently informed of the greatest force of subversion extant in the world, and that "Communism is the main menace of our time". It would be tragic for mankind not to have continuity among the "good guys" to man the ramparts of freedom when the "bad guys" seem to have little difficulty in obtaining replacements for their insidious attacks.

I hope this suggestion will be received in the spirit in which it is intended.

Sincerely,

Dear [redacted]:

Your letter of September 11th has been received, and I want to thank you for the kind comments you expressed. It is a pleasure to know you have read "Masters of Deceit." Perhaps you will also want to read another of my books, "A Study of Communism," which contains an analysis of international communist practices and contrasts totalitarian methods with life in a free country. A copy may be available at your post library.

In connection with the size of the Communist Party, you might be interested in the estimates made by the communists themselves. In February, 1962, Party leader Gus Hall made a public statement to the effect that the "state-of-mind" membership of the Party might run as high as 100,000. During a press interview at St. Louis, Missouri, in early 1964, he stated that the frequently published figure of 10,000 for total Communist Party membership in the United States was "quite accurate." On December 6, 1965, in Chicago, Illinois, a spokesman appearing at a press conference with Hall said that the November 15, 1965, Supreme Court decision relieving members of the Communist Party from registering with the Attorney General led to a rush for information and applications for membership.

Hall added that the Party was experiencing its greatest upsurge in history with approximately 2,000 being added to the membership rolls within the three weeks after the Supreme Court decision. Previously, Hall claimed that, in addition to the total number of members, there are another 20,000 or 30,000 people who believe in communist leadership in certain areas of the political struggle. It is our estimate that for every hard-core communist, there are at least 10 sympathizers ready and willing to do the Party's work.

While many would-be alarmists have predicted a communist victory, the Party's efforts are being thwarted by the FBI's internal security programs, by investigation of Party functionaries, and by widespread, intelligent public opposition to the communist philosophy. These achievements are being accomplished through orderly, legal procedures, and I can assure you we will continue to discharge our responsibilities in the internal security field with the highest degree of thoroughness and dispatch.

Enclosed is some material on the general subject of communism which I hope will be of interest to you.

At present I'm reading "Mr. Hoover's" "Masters of Deceit. Realizing it's publication date, I'm rather curious to know the total "known Communist-Party members."

I'm well aware that this may be an unusual request, however. I'm not familiar with the proper avenues of obtaining this information.

Also, if Mr. Hoover has any additional information or advice on Communism and it's threats it would be most welcomed.

The manner in which his material is written deserves compliment. It is entertaining as well as informative. Entertaining in that it is enjoyable reading.

I shall appreciate any effort made in my benefit.

We have bought and distributed one-hundred copies of your "Masters of Deceit" to people in Des Moines and surrounding area. We're ordering another hundred copies this week. Have you written anything as plain and direct, which is more up to date? If so, we will go to work on getting it distributed here, also. We have a two-hour radio show every Sun. eve. on an FM network, and we plug your books, and use quotes from you a great deal. You're still very popular and respected and admired in Iowa.

A series of incidence has occurred here which may or may not be of importance to you and the Bureau. It may give you the last piece in a puzzle you've been working on, yet it may not mean a thing. It is: a couple of months ago an elderly customer paused to remark, "It's surprising that Lamoni Iowa makes the national weather report, recently." I thought no more of it and then a month ago my sister, whose husband is a wheat-farmer in North Dakota, wrote to me saying, "It's amazing to hear Lamoni Iowa on the national weather report, after listening to it for more than forty years. Wonder how 'Lemonee' made it? Wish they'd learn to pronounce it correctly." Still we thought nothing of it until an elderly uncle wrote me last week saying, "I wonder what is so interesting about the weather in Lamoni that they have to put it in every weather report, nationally. It can't be that important, surely." All these three people are "old-timers" who have listened to weather reports, and none of them were aware of the others' comments to us.

Sat. eve. we were visiting relatives in the eastern part of the state, who always listen to weather reports, so we listened. With the report was the usual chart, with figures, of temperatures. This weather map was the strangest I've seen, in that all the temperatures' figures were uniform in size except for Lamoni Iowa and Billings Mont. There, the first number was half the size of the second, so that your eyes were immediately focused on Lamoni and Billings the contrast was so great. This, too, could be co-incidence, but it hardly looked so.

On the other hand, if information is being sent out this way----- Graceland College is our church college (RLDS) and the weather station is in the college, I understand. Where could a "nest" of subversives hide, better than among a bunch of unsuspecting "Saints"? We do know there has been some activity there in recent months we do not like, nor Federal grants for buildings. However we know the Pres. of the church is very conservative, but it is possible he does not know anything is amiss. We know other churches are being used: we don't want our's to be.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

O I am now in the process of reading your book "Masters of Deceit". There are plenty of things I do not understand about Communism, but one thing I would like to know, (I may be a little dumb on this point), but what is the communist's motivation? their reason for making all the people in the world the same? What would be their gain?

I can't understand why in anyone's mind or eye why the whole world should be the same.

This country may have its' faults, but (I hope) (I pray) like millions of other Americans our quote is "Give Me Liberty or Give Me Death. "

May I also say I am enjoying your book and am learning a lot from it.

Thank you for taking your time to read this and maybe answering it. I would truly like to have the answer to my question.

Yours truly

Dear Mr. Hoover,
I am now in the process of reading your book "Masters of Deceit". There are plenty of things I do not understand about Communism, but one thing I would like to know.
I may be a little dumb on this point, but what is the Communist's motivation?
Their reason for making all the people in the world the same? What would be their gain?

I can't understand why in anyone's mind or eye
why the whole world should be the same.
This country may have its faults, but (I hope)
like millions of other Americans our quote is
"Give Me Liberty or Give Me Death".

Dear [redacted]

Your letter was received on January 4th and I very much appreciate your favorable comments concerning my book, "Masters of Deceit." Perhaps you would find another of my books, "A Study of Communism," to be of equal interest. It contains an analysis of international communist practices and contrasts totalitarian methods with life in a free country. It may be available at your school or local library.

I was interested in your desire to present information on communism to your students. While it is not my prerogative to say what should or should not be taught in schools, I think that, at the primary level the most effective action you can take as a teacher is to instill in your students a love of country, respect for the law and an understanding of the heritage upon which our great Nation is based. Students armed with an appreciation of these qualities can better resist the insidious menace of communism upon reaching maturity.

I just want to tell you how much I enjoyed your book, Masters of Deceit. I have just finished reading it the third time, and it is indeed a masterpiece. I really think it should be on the required reading list in every high school.

I am a public school teacher here, and I wish my students in the second grade were old enough to understand it. Why don't you write a small book on a primary reading level?

I have never known a Communist, and it is marvelous to have a book like yours that I know is truthful.

Mr. Hoover,

Recently I have read your book, 'Masters of Deceit,' on communism in the U.S. & the world. I enjoyed it very much because I wanted to find out what it is. I have read it twice in order to understand it more fully.

I found, on what you had written, very shocking & revolting & I never thought stuff like this could be done. It also shocked me to see or read about Americans, who are free, join such a party, to give up their freedom for slavery in a sense. To join a party who ideas are unethical, who have no feeling for human life, morals & religion.

Since reading your book, I have have read, "A Study of Communism," "Communism & Your Child," by H. Rommerstine & other books on the C.P.U.S.A., the Youth Party, etc.

I don't like communism since reading your book because I didn't know what it was. I love my country enough to know that I wouldn't like to see parents working in slave labor camps & young kids being given communist indoctrination. I don't want to see this because it strips us of our God-given right to be on this earth & to be free.

Sir, I'd like to say here, even though it may sound foolish, that I'd like to offer my servies to you, to fight communism, when I am older & more mature. I am seventeen now & I'd like to help in any way I can.

This letter may not be written well, but I hope I do get my point across. I have meant what I said in the above paragraph.

Thank you & sincerly yours,

Reference is made to letter to Mr. Tolson, from Holt, Rinehart and Winston, Inc., publishers of captioned book, concerning the special edition distributed by Constructive Action, Inc., for use in connection with an essay contest for high school students. The letter advises that Pocket Books Inc., which published the special edition, has indicated Constructive Action is not going to continue with the program, but would like to transfer permission for the special edition to the group, Young Americans for Freedom, Washington, D. C. The publishers would like to know if Mr. Hoover would agree to this.

BACKGROUND

In 1-67, Constructive Action advised us that they would like to distribute copies of "Masters of Deceit" in a special edition at reduced cost for high school students. The Director indicated to both Constructive Action and Holt, Rinehart and Winston that he had no objection to any arrangements made by the publishers with Constructive Action to distribute copies of the book; however, the use of the book in the project was not to be construed as Mr. Hoover's endorsement of Constructive Action.

YOUNG AMERICANS FOR FREEDOM

Bufiles indicated considerable correspondence regarding Young Americans for Freedom which is known as a very conservative anticommunist organization. We have in the past given them reprints on communism at their request; we gave them permission to use the Director's photo on the cover of their 1-65 publication "New Guard."

The group has been somewhat controversial recently because of its political activities; it has been distributing literature decrying Great Society programs and calling for a nationwide drive to insure a conservative victory in the polls in November, 1968. In 1-68, a citizen furnished a booklet distributed by the group which consists of excerpts from the Director's 1968 Appropriation Testimony; there is no indication the group ever contacted us for permission to reprint this in the form of a booklet, the cover of which lists a price of $.50.

OBSERVATIONS

In view of the above, and since the group will probably be soliciting contributions from citizens for purchase of the special edition of "Masters of Deceit" it is felt it might be embarrassing to the Bureau if permission were given to Young Americans for Freedom to sponsor the special edition.

RECOMMENDATION:

That attached letter over Mr. Tolson's signature, be sent to Miss Reese advising her that Mr. Hoover would rather that permission not be transferred in connection with special edition of "Masters of Deceit."

Dear [redacted]

I have received your letter of February 5th and want to thank you for your generous comments concerning "Masters of Deceit." Perhaps you will also wish to read another of my books, "A Study of Communism," which is a comprehensive study of the development and expansion of communism throughout the world. It may be available at your school or local library.

While it is not possible for me to answer all of your specific inquiries since information contained in our files must be maintained as confidential in accordance with regulations of the Department of Justice, I can assure you the communist conspiracy is as dangerous today as it was when I wrote "Masters of Deceit."

The FBI no longer issues statements concerning membership figures or the location of Communist Party members; however, you might be interested in the estimates made by the communists themselves. In February, 1962, Party leader Gus Hall made a public statement to the effect that the "state-of-mind" membership of the Party might run as high as 100,000. During a press interview at St. Louis, Missouri, in early 1964, he stated that the frequently published figure of 10,000 for total Communist Party membership in the United States was "quite accurate." On December 6, 1965, in Chicago, Illinois, a spokesman appearing at a press conference with Hall said that the November 15, 1965, Supreme Court decision relieving members of the Communist Party from registering with the Attorney General led to a rush for information and applications for membership.

Hall added that the Party was experiencing its greatest upsurge in history with approximately 2,000 being added to the membership rolls within the three weeks after the Supreme Court decision. Previously, Hall claimed that in addition to the total number of members, there are another 20,000 or 30,000 people who believe in communist leadership in certain areas of the political struggle. It is our estimate that for every hard-core communist, there are at least 10 sympathizers ready and willing to do the Party's work.

Insofar as your inquiry regarding "peace" groups is concerned, this Bureau is strictly an investigative agency of the Federal Government and, as such, neither makes evaluations nor draws conclusions as to the character or integrity of any organization, publication or individual.

I am enclosing a copy of our latest Uniform Crime Reports bulletin which contains statistical data that you may find of interest, and I am also sending you some literature regarding communism. Due to budgetary limitations, it is not possible for me to send you material on a regular basis.

Sincerely yours,
J. Edgar Hoover

Dear Sir:

I am writing this to you but, of course, I presume that another person will answer my letter. Nevertheless may I congratulate you on the fine piece of work you did in writing the book MASTERS OF DECEIT.

This weekend I read the entire book for the first time. I regret that I am about 10 years behind time. It is shocking. Unbelievable! but surely true. Here are a few questions:

1. Do you still maintain that everything you said in the book still holds true regarding the conspiracy?
2. Are the top ten states where Party members live still the ones listed in your book?
3. Are all "peace" groups infiltrated? For example, how about the Fellowship of Reconciliation? the AFSC? Which ones are "fronts"?
4. Do you have late figures on Party membership in this country?
5. Do you have a more recently published book similar to this one?
6. Juvenile delinquency: is it related to the conspiracy? Also, could you send latest statistics on juvenile delinquency by states?
7. If you issue regular or periodic pamphlets of interest to pupils or teachers, please put me on your mailing list. I would like information which might be used in our school newspaper of which I am the advisor.

P. S. A former teacher here who is no longer living often told stories of how she was harassed by some Communists years ago in Bucks County, Pennsylvania and her stories were so fantastic that most of us did not believe. Most teachers thought that she was suffering from hallucinations, but.....! She had told me that she once received an oral commendation (via telephone, I believe) from Mr. J. Edgar Hoover himself. Her name was a Mrs.

Purposefully ignored in reply. SP

[redacted] If you would be in position to do so, could you verify the truth of her story(ies). I would presume that you would have a record and it would be interesting to know if such took place as just this morning two of our teachers were still laughing about her wild stories even though she has been dead a few years. Truth is stranger than fiction, eh?

Thank you.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Part of our sophomore class have been studying Communism. We have been using your book, Masters of Deceit. Your book contains a lot of information and explains Communism and you tell why and what kind of people join such a group. It is hard to understand such a group of people and their way of thinking.

I commend you on writing this book, Masters of Deceit, and your effort in fighting Communism in the United States. Have you written any other material on Communism?

Sincerely yours,

Dear Sir:

Your work as director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation is most commendable.

Having just completed reading your Masters of Deceit, I found it most intriguing. The chapter on "The Communist Trojan Horse in Action" was extremely awakening.
Reading Masters of Deceit has given me a shocking picture of what life in the United States would be under Communism and has given me a deep feeling of patriotism. I now feel I can help fight this ever-present danger.

Again I would like to commend your efforts.

Dear [redacted]:

Your letter of February 25th has been received and I am certainly pleased to learn you have enjoyed my book, "Masters of Deceit." Perhaps you might also like to read another of my books, "A Study of Communism," which is a comprehensive study of the development of communism throughout the world. It may be available at your local library.

In connection with the size of the Communist Party, you might be interested in the estimates made by the communists themselves. In February, 1962, Party leader Gus Hall made a public statement to the effect that the "state-of-mind" membership of the Party might run as high as 100,000. During a press interview at St. Louis, Missouri, in early 1964, he stated that the frequently published figure of 10,000 for total Communist Party membership in the United States was "quite accurate." On December 6, 1965, in Chicago, Illinois, a spokesman appearing at a press conference with Hall said that the November 15, 1965, Supreme Court decision relieving members of the Communist Party from registering with the Attorney General led to a rush for information and applications for membership.

Hall added that the Party was experiencing its greatest upsurge in history with approximately 2,000 being added to the membership rolls within the three weeks after the Supreme Court decision.

Previously, Hall claimed that in addition to the total number of members, there are another 20,000 or 30,000 people who believe in communist leadership in certain areas of the political struggle. It is our estimate that for every hard-core communist, there are at least 10 sympathizers ready and willing to do the Party's work.

In response to your request, I am enclosing some material on the general subject of communism which I hope you will find to be of assistance. Your interest in the fight against this insidious menace is indeed appreciated.

NOTE: Bufiles contain no record of correspondent.

February 25, 1968

Dear Sirs;

I recently had the privilege of reading Mr. J. Edgar Hoover's book, Masters of Deceit, and I was thoroughly intrigued by it. Never (until I had read this book) had I realized exactly what communism is and how it stands ready to destroy all of those freedoms which I daily take for granted. Having learned that some "Americans" are among those plotting the downfall of our democracy, I was prompted to write this letter.

Please send me information on recent communist tactics in the U.S.A., statistics on their U.S.A. membership, and any other available data pertaining to communism within the U.S.A. I plan to make a detailed study of this grave problem, and any help you can offer me will be greatly appreciated.

Now that I am aware of the "Masters of Deceit" and their motives, though I am only 16 years of age, I am willing to do anything I can to defeat communism on a nation-wide (not to mention world-wide) basis. I am sure that everyone else who has read Mr. Hoover's book has the same concern as I..

Thank you very much for your time and trouble.

Sincerely,

Our country is indebted to you for outlining the dangers of Communism in your book, "Masters of Deceit". In that book you pointed out that for those who understand "The Worker" doubletalk, it provides a quick means to communicate the Party line.

As a proud member of the John Birch Society I wish to stay abreast of Communist propaganda, and have therefore ordered a subscription to "The Worker".

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

Memorandum

to : Mr. Bishop

DATE: 3-22-68

FROM : M. A. Jones

SUBJECT: REQUEST BY YOUNG AMERICANS
FOR FREEDOM TO DISTRIBUTE
"MASTERS OF DECEIT"

BACKGROUND

In 1-68, Marguerite Reese of Holt, Rinehart and Winston, wrote Mr. Tolson indicating that Pocket Books, Inc., had advised that Constructive Action, Inc., was not going to continue to distribute the special edition of captioned book prepared in connection with an essay contest for high school students, but wanted to transfer permission for the special edition to Young Americans for Freedom. Miss Reese asked if Mr. Hoover would agree to this.

A Bufiles check reflected considerable correspondence on Young Americans for Freedom, (YAF) and we have furnished them treprints. However, in view of YAF's somewhat controversial activities in distributing literature decrying Great Society programs and calling for a nationwide drive to insure a conservative victory in the November elections, and since it was felt the group would probably be soliciting contributions for the special edition, it was recommended and approved that permission not be transferred to them in connection with the special edition. EX 101

CURRENT DEVELOPMENTS

We have received a letter from Miss Reese 3-20-68, to Mr. Tolson, referring to the Director's preference that permission not be extended for the special edition transfer. She advises that Pocket Books had telephoned to indicate that Young Americans for Freedom was most anxious to have copies of "Masters of Deceit" and they had constantly been in communication with Pocket Books about its availability. Miss Reese further noted the group was willing to forego the special edition which had been prepared for Constructive Action, and at this time they merely desired to distribute an edition absolutely identical with the regular Pocket edition, except that the book cover would be a different color to distinguish it from the regular paperback edition.

RE: REQUEST BY YOUNG AMERICANS
FOR FREEDOM TO DISTRIBUTE
"MASTERS OF DECEIT"

It has just been brought to our attention that Congressman Donald Lukens, in a letter on YAF stationery, had made a statement erroneously attributing to the FBI comments on Communist China's spending of $1 million in connection with last summer's riots. Lukens has been contacted by us and has indicated that the YAF staff had prepared the statement. Subsequent Bureau contact with David Jones, Executive Director of YAF, has determined the erroneous statement was based on a newspaper column which in turn was erroneous. Jones apologized and stated he was greatly embarrassed because of this comment particularly since the organization has great admiration for Mr. Hoover and also since they would like to distribute 500,000 copies of "Masters of Deceit." Jones assured that the erroneous statement would be corrected.

OBSERVATIONS:

Since Young Americans for Freedom appears to be most sincere in wanting to distribute copies of the book, and is willing to forego the special edition and to use instead the regular edition (except for coloring on the cover), it is felt we should interpose no objection. It will, however, be emphasized that under no circumstances should the distributing of the book be construed as Mr. Hoover's approval or endorsement of YAF.

RECOMMENDATION:

That the attached letter over Mr. Tolson's signature be sent to Miss Reese advising her the Director has no objection to her request.

Czechoslovak National Council of America St. Petersburg Chapter

On February 22nd, 1968 at Williams Park the Czechoslovak National Council of America, St. Petersburg Chapter, observed George Washington's birthday and the birthday of Thomas G. Masaryk, President-Liberator of Czechoslovakia, more than 5000 attended. The Sunshine City Band and the MacDill Air Force Band rendered a magnificent concert. The principle speakers were Hon. Roman L. Hruska, U.S. Senator of Nebraska, James V. Krakora, Czechoslovak National Council, Chicago, Hon. C. W. (Bill) Young, State Senator from Florida, Hon. Don Jones, Mayor of St. Petersburg and Hon. John Bonsey, Chairman, Board of Pinellas County Commissioners. W. E. Eddie Taylor, Field Director for Congressman Cramer for 10 years, also attended.

A colorful patriotic program by groups in national costumes was presented at the park and later attended by 400 people, a traditional Czechoslovak dinner was served and enjoyed by all. The entire proceeds from this program will be donated to the Czechoslovak National Council of America, a non-profit organization founded in 1918 devoted to promote co-operation of all people for the preservation of Democratic Freedom. In 1967, the Czechoslovak National Council of America presented a check for $1,000. to Roger Stevens, chairman of the Kennedy Center board of trustees. Thomas Garrigue Masaryk has a chair named in his honor in the opera house of John F. Kennedy Center for the performing arts. All the proceeds of the Czechoslovak National Council of America, St. Petersburg Chapter are designed for local charities and for the use of the American Fund for Czechoslovak Refugees, Inc.

In February 1948, Ambassador Dr. Jan Papanek then permanent delegate of Czechoslovakia to the United Nations, decided with a group of friends that something must be done to help the men, women and children who were defecting. Through their hard work the American Fund for Czechoslovak Refugees was founded on May 3rd, 1948 under the laws of the State of New York. Since 1948 some 70,000 Czechs and Slovaks have fled their homeland for a new life in democratic countries. About 60% have settled in the United States, Canada or Australia. During the past four years many more have left their homeland Czechoslovakia. More than 3,000 Czechoslovak escapees mostly in West Germany and Austria remain in camps because they are too old or ill to be accepted as immigrants. They also must be helped and it is the intention of our Chapter here in St. Petersburg to assist them as much as possible, along with the aid of other chapters. Here in St. Petersburg we already have one hundred and ninety members and welcome for membership any person who understands and sympathizes with us in our cause. We are especially desirous of recruiting younger members to carry on the work. Our freedom is in peril, and World Peace is at stake. Our American shores may well be the next target for all-out Communist infiltration, subversion and killing of the innocent.

Mr. James A. Novotny of Clearwater, past President of the Czechoslovak National Council and the members have worked hard to build up this organization which was established here in St. Petersburg fifteen years ago by James Hovorka, now deceased. Mr. Charles Havek of Bradenton, our new President is also a dedicated person for the cause. There are several interesting publications available and each month an American Bulletin is sent each member keeping them aware of important current events. It is highly recommended that you read "Masters of Deceit" by F.B.I. Director J. Edgar Hoover, a classic expose of Communist strategy and tactics.

Please watch the St. Petersburg Times for our meetings and social activities.

On March 19th, the Czechoslovak National Council lost a dear friend, Carroll Runyon, a noted lawyer in St. Petersburg for many years. Mr. Runyon believed in our cause and one of his pet subjects was "Freedom of Speech". We shall miss him.

Joseph F. Kalabza, Asst. to the Pres.

Dear Mr. Tolson:

You will recall that on January 9 I wrote to you about the possibility of having Pocket Books prepare a special edition of MASTERS OF DECEIT for use by Young Americans for Freedom, Inc. The edition would have been identical with the one that Mr. Hoover approved for use by Constructive Action Inc.

On January 18 you indicated that Mr. Hoover preferred that permission not be extended for that special edition of MASTERS OF DECEIT.

Yesterday Mr. Freeman Lewis, Vice President of Pocket Books, telephoned to say that Young Americans for Freedom Inc. were most anxious indeed to have copies of MASTERS OF DECEIT and that they had been constantly in communication with Pocket Books about the availability of the book. Mr. Lewis tells me that at this point Young Americans for Freedom Inc. are willing to forego their plans for the very special edition which was prepared for Constructive Action Inc. At this time they have requested simply an edition that would be absolutely identical with the regular edition distributed by Pocket Books, except for the fact that the cover of the book would be different. All of the copy on the cover would be the same as for the regular edition but they have asked for other colors to be used so that their edition might be distinguished from the regular paperback edition.

Would Mr. Hoover be willing to permit such an edition of his book for Young Americans for Freedom, Inc.?

With good wishes,

Sincerely,

Marguerite J. Reese

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Please find attached a copy of your book, Masters of Deceit.
I first read the paperback issue of your book several years ago, and only recently acquired a hardback copy of your book. I would certainly appreciate it if you would autograph your book for me to put in my personal library.

As a former member of law enforcement and now in the Industrial Security and Investigation field, your book has given me a good insight into how the Communist element works. Also, as a member of the Evergreen School Board, I have checked our library and found that we do have two copies of the book and both being well read. I think it is an excellent book for high school students.

In closing let me say I think you do a very fine job as Director

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for writing such an informative book as MASTERS OF DECEIT. It is the most down-to-earth and practical book on Communism that I have ever been able to find. I have recommended it many times to friends who have wanted to learn more about this dreadful enemy. Also, we have made sure that a copy has been placed in our church library.

Your service to America these many years as director of our FBI is more than outstanding. I'm thankful we have a great Christian man and a dedicated American in charge of this tremendously responsible task. We especially appreciate the great work you are doing in fighting Communism. I hope and pray that when the day of your retirement comes (which I hope isn't soon), your replacement will be as dedicated and fearless as you have been.

You have our prayers often. May God continue to bless you in the days ahead.

Dear [redacted]:

Your letter of June 10th has been received and I want to thank you for your generous comments concerning my book, "Masters of Deceit," which has also been printed in Spanish and Chinese.

It is always encouraging to hear from citizens who demonstrate an awareness of the problems facing our country and who desire to prepare themselves to meet the challenge to our freedoms presented by communism. A broad knowledge of the objectives and operations of the communist movement is essential if the American people are to effectively resist its eroding influence.

In response to your request, I am enclosing some material which I hope will be of interest to you. Perhaps you will also wish to refer to my book, "A Study of Communism," It is a comprehensive study of the development and expansion of communism throughout the world. This book may be available at your local library.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover
Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

I am in the process of reading your book on Communism, (Masters of Deceit). I find it to be a very informative book. It is one of the best books that I have ever read.

Mr. Hoover, I have become very disturbed with the past two or three years of events in our country. I want to live in a free America, and I want my kids to be able to reap the benefits of this great country. The events to which I refer to are: the assassination of the late John F. Kennedy and his brother, the late Robert F. Kennedy, and the people who go berserk and kill for no reason at all.

I am also disturbed at the thought of the Communist Party having such an early beginning in our country, and the power it has gained over the years. This power has gained and lost at times, but the smallest group of Communists is a threat to our free enterprise system and government.

As I look at your book I see that the copy right is 1958. This is fully ten years ago, and I wondered if there is any information that I could obtain that covers these ten years. If so, I wonder if you would direct me as to how I could obtain it.

Also, Mr. Hoover, I wonder if your book has been published in any foreign languages. If it has, then this is a great accomplishment and I commend you for it. If not, then I would suggest that it be published in as many as possible. This book could help millions of people to see the evils of Communism and its results.

In closing, Mr. Hoover, I would like to say that I am behind the U.S. all the way, and the FBI in stamping out Communism from this country and the world.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

I am a boy of fourteen years and live in Abbeville, South Carolina. I attend the high school here and enjoy school very much. I enjoy the opportunities to gain knowledge in all fields. I am currently reading your book on the F.B.I. as well as Masters of Deceit, both of which I am thoroughly enjoying.

I am writing concerning Masters of Deceit, as I am interested in communism and methods of arresting its contamination of our country and allies. I would like, and appreciate, any information of which you may have on this subject or any books you may recommend to me.

I was previously in Washington in March of this year on an educational tour of the city. On this tour I had the privilege of touring the F.B.I. Building and enjoyed it very much.

Although, I and my family had intended I study to be a doctor, I have found the F.B.I. organization most interesting.

Any assistance you could send me would be appreciated.

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I have just finished "Masters of Deceit", and wanted to thank you for this excellent book. It is extremely interesting and very thorough, and gave me a good base from which to continue my personal investigation of the subversive factions industriously at work in our Country today. I believe that we are in great danger and wish to inform myself of the situation and do what I can to restore American principals.

As you suggested in 'Masters..' I wrote off for the Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications put out by the House of Representatives and to the Justice Department for their list of Subversive Front Organizations. I was rather amazed to find that the Guide was published in December 61 and the Front list was published in November of 1955. Is there no more recent list than these? I'm sure there have been a multitude of new subversive groups formed just in the past couple of years.

How frustrated you must feel after giving Congress information on various future or contemplated employees in the Government and not have them take any action, and see these people appointed to high positions from where they can help ship us down the river. It is very frightening to me. It is only recently that I have begun to take an interest in the way our ship seems to be faltering badly and I am attempting to inform myself of the situation we are in then to do all I can to right it and slow it down. I admit that I had to turn to the chapter in your book "What You Can Do" after reading the first couple of chapters and realize that one can't go off half-informed and expect to make any impression. Can you suggest of where I might turn now to find additional authoritative books, etc. that would help me? Also, could you suggest where I might turn to find the biographies of all members of the Supreme Court?

I'm sorry I have rambled on, but I have been guilty of complaining in many situations and not saying "thank you". I sleep much better, Mr. Hoover, knowing you are on the job, and you are doing a tremendous job.

Dear Sir;

Thought it appropriate that

I write and thank you for having the book "Masters of Deceit" published. A friend loaned me her copy, and I am grateful to her for doing so.

Was most surprised and shocked at most of the things I read, especially the subversive infiltration into the N.A.A.C.P. The puzzling one of all to me is how 15000 Communists served in our forces in World War II.

What happened to the strict screening of men inducted?

This Government is so lax in their duties to-day, that we the people are not surprised at anything that goes on in America. As I write this, the shopping centers are all open and doing a lot of business. Because the big majority of people don't care anymore.

I am saddened, as I know you are, at the attitudes of the majority of so-called Americans.

May you serve long and well as in the past.

Very Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Hoover:

As you can see by this letter-head, I am presently incarcerated at the Lebanon Correctional Institution, Lebanon, Ohio. Due to the fact that I am incarcerated, it is very hard for me to obtain information concerning the political powers of the world.

I am in the process of writing a book on Communism and how it is slowly destroying America. The title of my book is, Communism and Socialism? or Democracy and Capitalism?

EX-100 REC 46 62-104277-8277

I am writing to you now, asking you to send me any and all information you can on this subject. Here is some of the things I will need:

2 AUG 20 1968

1. Name and dates of people who have been arrested for any type of aggressive act against the U.S.
2. How Communism was started in the United States and when.
3. How many know-Communists there are in the U.S.
4. Some known Communist fronts.

I am very much against the Communist movement, and feel that

MY book will be of help to the public as far as informing them of the threats that exist.

I have read your book, Masters of Deceit, and truly feel that this is a wonderful book. If possible, I would like to use some quotations from your book, and therefore, will need your expressed written consent to do so. If this meets with your approval please send to me by return mail, along with the other information I have asked for, a written statement saying that I have your permission to use some parts of your book in the book I am writing.

I am unable to obtain your book from the Institution Library any time I need it as it is not always there, and when I am able to get it, I am only allowed to keep it for a short period of time. So would you also tell me, by letter, who or what publishing company I must write to obtain your book.

Please advise if there will be any charge for any of the information I have asked for.

Your consideration and help will be most appreciated. Thank you for reading my letter, and for your time.

Dear [redacted]:

I was pleased to learn from your letter of August 14th that you have read my book, "Masters of Deceit," and very much appreciate your favorable comments concerning my administration of this Bureau.

As the Director of a strictly investigative agency of the Federal Government which neither makes evaluations nor draws conclusions as to the character or integrity of any organization, publication or individual, I am unable to suggest any publications or organizations for your consideration. For the same reason I cannot comment on the political position of any of the presidential candidates.

I am enclosing some material which contains suggestions all of us can use in the fight against communism. You may also wish to read another of my books, "A Study of Communism," which is a comprehensive study of the development and expansion of communism throughout the world. It may be available at your local library.

Sincerely yours,
J. Edgar Hoover

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover
Washington, D. C.

Sir:

I have just finished reading your book "Masters of Deceit." My only regret is that I did not read it ten years ago when it was first published. Reading it today it appears that you were looking into a crystal ball at America of 1968 when you wrote some of the first portion of the book. I refer to the statement in the first chapter which starts out: "the Communists want to control everything..." and follows with a list of things the Communists want to control. The statement today could be re-written "The Federal Government of the United States controls almost everything..." and continue with this same list of examples that you used ten years ago.

Also in the foreword (Pocket Book edition) you describe the result of communist doctrine as thrusting the country into anarchy, lawlessness and immorality beyond imagination. Surely this agrees with the headlines of today's newspapers in America to a much greater degree than it did when the book was written.

Wishing to oppose Communism with all the skill I can muster (after spending half my forty years of life in the United States Navy), I am asking your advice. Could you recommend a few publications, either government publications or private, whose sole or major aim is exposing Communism in the United States? I would also appreciate recommendations concerning organizations that are actually concerned and effective in their opposition to Communism in America.

And out of concern I ask, do you honestly believe that any of our present presidential aspirants (Outside of possibly George Wallace) are concerned that Socialism is replacing Capitalism in the United States today, and that State Control is replacing freedom of the individual in our Country?

I am thankful to you both for your long devoted work against Communism and for this book and the benefits I may derive from it.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

In re-reading your book "Masters of Deceit" I find that so much of what you wrote in 1957 is valid today, it deserves a wide reading throughout the country: practically every home should be exposed to it.

In what I might suggest to that end, I have nothing whatever to sell you, nor do I wish any publicity for myself. I am simply moved by a deep concern for this country and I feel that something can be done about it with the contents of this book as the central factor.

I am a retired advertising executive with well over fifty years' experience — 24 years in Chicago.

If you would be interested in learning of what I have to suggest, I shall be glad to send it on.
No obligation of course.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

With respect to your letter of the 11th answering mine of the 4th regarding wide dissemination of the information contained in your book, "Masters of Deceit" :

It can be accomplished by having the contents of the book syndicated to newspapers throughout the country, who would serialize it a chapter at a time.

As you doubtless know, newspapers buy and use syndicated material to stimulate circulation. The more of current interest the material has, and the more weight the author's name carries with the public, the more readily newspapers will buy it. But that is not all.

It is one thing to get the material before the eyes of people; it is another thing to make sure of maximum reading by those most in need of the information. I would suggest therefore that the syndicating of this material carry with it a series of awards to readers for the best letters dealing with what they have read — incentives, if you please, for reading the series in the paper.

This would appeal to the individual reader and tend to attract a larger number of them; and at the same time it would appeal to a larger number of newspapers and thus make the sale of the series by the newspaper syndicate easier.

Cash awards being the most attractive, I would suggest that a series of such awards be offered to readers 21 and over, and a similar series to readers under 21. The purpose is of course to get many young people to compete without pitting them against the more mature reader. Awards to be made out of the receipts for the series, not by the individual newspaper.

The series of cash awards for each of the two competing groups might be something like this: 1st prize $1,000; 2nd prize $300; 3rd prize $200; 4th prize $100; 2 prizes of $25 each; 20 prizes of $15 each; 100 prizes of $10 each; a total of 126 prizes amounting to $3000, for each group.

Judging the letters for the purpose of determining winners could be done by a corps of retired schoolteachers — people amply qualified by experience to judge such things. Such people as judges would command the respect of the public for the project, and at the same time inspire the confidence of the competitors in the integrity of the procedure. Moreover, the cost of the judging and incidental activities could be held to a minimum in that way.

ENCLOSURE ATTACHED

There are a large number of retired schoolteachers in this community of retired people in which I live, and no doubt in many another community of retired people, who would be glad of an opportunity to take on a job to which they are accustomed both for the interesting activity it affords them and for the added income, even though small, which it provides.

I am sure that any of the major newspaper syndicates would be glad to consider such a proposition as I suggest. The name of the Chicago-Tribune Syndicate suggests itself to me not only because they are one of the majors, but also because the philosophy of the owners of it parallels yours and mine.

While my interest in this whole matter is not motivated by a desire for compensation or publicity of any kind, I shall be happy to put my experience at your disposal in any way that I can, to help the project to succeed.

By way of identification I mention in passing that I am a retired advertising and sales executive with well over 50 years' experience (24 years in Chicago); a Mason for 58 years, Scottish Rite 47 years, and a Shriner for 45 years.

Yours sincerely

In a world where men probe the universe with devices of their own making, where intricate problems are solved by man-made computers, where medical science conquers disease and lengthens life, isn't it ridiculous to be killing each other over our differences?

Ideas always come from people, not from governments. One reason why governments should be of, by and for the people.

The world owes no man a living. Nations owe only wide-open opportunity to each citizen. What he does with it is up to him.

Let's not fall for Reds' fairy tales. Cries of "police brutality" -- proven false in all but a few cases investigated by authorities -- divert attention from the presence of Reds in our midst, well hidden behind our youth.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

For some years since your book Masters of Deceit was first published and I read it, the first time, the little wheels in my head began to turn about the following idea. Wouldn't it be ideal, in some ways, if the verbatim contents of several pages of your book could be brought every day to a reading public of an area newspaper until such time that the book, complete with glossary, were printed for reading by the public?

With this possibility in mind, before approaching a newspaper editor with the idea, obviously we would need your permission. There could be no deletions or insertions permitted, but with the whole printed just as you have it. Slightly different wording would change meanings, possibly and not be advisable.

Several years ago I discussed this with a dentist friend, father of seven children and he thought he could help me to get this into the paper through a local editor, a friend of his. He thought it might have far-reaching advantages for the cause of truth and peace in America.

Do you think such a plan as I mention here would be wise? We could certainly reach many people by this means. I don't think I've "advertised" any book or reading material in my work as a Medical Technologist and contact with patients, blood donors, and sometimes visitors to our hospital so much. I am not a fanatic in this informing bit about the communists and their work, but try to keep alert and awaken others to their "ideals".

If you give permission to proceed, please mail the enclosed letter to the Holt Company; otherwise simply confiscate that letter with its envelope.

God reward you, as only He can for your labors to keep people informed about God-less communism so as to keep America a free country

Sincerely,

cc: Henry Holt & Co.

Dear [Redacted]:

I have received your letter of October 9th and appreciate your favorable remarks concerning my recent statement before the National Commission on the Causes and Prevention of Violence which was published in "U. S. News and World Report" magazine. I want to thank you for your expression of confidence and I am grateful for your kind appraisal of and generous action regarding my book, "Masters of Deceit."

With respect to your comments on firearms registration, my position is based on a great amount of deliberation after a study of crime statistics available to the FBI. As a result, I believe the registration of firearms should be required in every state and that the mail-order purchase of guns should be banned. Let me emphasize that the registration of guns is not meant to keep responsible, law-abiding citizens from owning them. I have not advocated any measure which would keep an individual from buying a gun for sporting or protective purposes. Regulatory measures requiring registration need not conflict with the constitutional right to bear arms.

The mail-order purchase of guns should be eliminated, however, because there is no way to keep deadly weapons out of the hands of irresponsible or undesirable people with this type of sale. Too often criminals, children or deranged people have been able to get a gun merely by mailing an order, using an alias if need be. I also believe it will be desirable for the Federal Government to pass supporting laws concerning gun registration to help local authorities control traffic in firearms which cuts across state lines. These Federal statutes should be available to back up, not supplant, the local laws. ✓

I am enclosing some material which further sets forth my views on this topic.

Sincerely yours,
J. Edgar Hoover

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I recently read your article in the U. S. News and World Report, on crime in the U. S. I enjoyed it so much and found that 99% of your beliefs and convictions were similar to mine, but being human, there was 1% in which I differed and that is in regards to gun control. I know you have a better insight to this problem than I, but as an average citizen I cannot see how a federal gun control and registering of arms will stop violence. To me it would create another problem, such as the prohibition era.

The good citizens are going to have guns and, as you know, it's not the gun but the man behind it. I notice young Ramsey Clark is a great advocate for gun control. In frank terms, he is not love of mine and I think the feelings there might be quite similar.

I feel as if I were somewhat of a disciple of yours in this area or in this state. I have done as much to advocate your grand book, "Masters of Deceit". This is a grand book and it came to me as a shock to see how few people in high positions had not read it!

I have sent to date some 1,500 of your books to various leaders in various positions in this state. The response was most favorable. I can frankly say, from the people I have associated with in various walks of life, that there is a high regard and respect for Mr. J. Edgar Hoover.

Wishing you the best.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

I would like to know if you or your department has ever heard of a book called, Dare Call This Treason. " I have forgotten the author because I have read so many books since I read it. It has the theme all through it like Slaughter's Operation Epidemic. " Things going to happen in the future. I had a copy & loaned to a pupil of mine and he later went into the service and the copy was lost.

I have tried many book stands & book publishers and they never heard of it. It seems to have been taken from the book stands.

One of the last chapters in it was called, "The Secret Government". I read an article of a news reporter from Europe who mentioned the same work in his article against our Foreign Policy which recalled it to my mind.

I have always as a teacher been interested in Civil Government & History.

The article made me think if what the author said in his book was true we may have now an "International Conspiracy" working against our government being directed from New York which the book mentioned as the Headquarters. I am sending these thoughts along for your consideration the way certain things are developing in our once peaceful country. We can all do our little part if we report to you the beginnings of radical movements so you can be alerted. Trusting this may be of some help, I am,

Dear Mr. Hoover:

As an American, and a member of Veterans World War I, I do quite a little writing on the subject of Americanism and Defense, and the Communist Party activities in America.

In your book "Masters of Deceit", which I study a great deal; I find many documentaries that I should like very much to have your permission to use in my articles.

Also, if there is any publications on the more recent developments along the lines of Communistic activities, I would appreciate advisement as to what they are, and where they may be obtained.

Most of my articles are published in our local newspapers. A few go into neighboring newspapers in Idaho. I do not write articles of this type for profit.

Halt its growth

When the ten per cent surtax law passed, coupled with a congressional mandate calling for a $8 billion reduction in government spending, a lot of persons assumed the reduction would take place as a matter of course, since it was called for by law. But runaway government spending makes budget cuts hard to come by. The federal payroll has risen instead of declined, and every spending cut is met by an equal or greater increase somewhere else.

After noting the failure of the budget cutters, The National Observer comments: "What will make the cutting job tougher is the fundamental reluctance of men on Capitol Hill to cut their own pet projects, even though it is they who insisted on the spending ceiling of $180.7 billion for the current year." It is a good bet that by this time next year that ceiling will have long since collapsed, and the marvelous provision of a cut of $6 billion from this year's budget will have been a lost dream. Meanwhile, our taxes have been raised.

We should stop talking about reducing the size of government and concentrate on halting its growth. That alone would be a considerable victory.

Health week focuses on family doctor

As the health care structure of the country becomes more complex, the role of the family doctor has been found increasingly important. He has become the primary source of medical assistance to families faced with a growing complex of medical specialists and technicians.

To help focus public attention on the accomplishments of the nation's health care system and the role of the family doctor, the American Medical Association is sponsoring a series of health week activities.

The crisis in New York City. While many of the problems facing the new President are truly nationwide in scope, some of the most critical ones involve a small number of big cities. The situation in New York City, the country's biggest metropolis, is particularly acute. New York City has been deteriorating in terms of law and order for a number of years. But the deterioration has been speeded up in recent months, with a wave of strikes, slowdowns and general strife. New York's school children have missed a good part of their classroom work this fall as a result of three illegal strikes by the city's teachers. The teachers for their part are in a state of fear. A decision to decentralize the schools has opened the doors to domination of several decentralized districts by black power advocates. Teachers have been assaulted by parents who are in sympathy with the Black Power leaders. Schools have been broken into by hate factions in the school disputes.

New York's policemen who keep the city from collapsing into total savagery feel that they have been betrayed by the spineless, municipal leadership of Mayor John Lindsay, the fashionable liberal. As a result they recently engaged in a slowdown as a gesture of protest. In summary, New York City is in a terrible mess. Not only is there chaos in the schools and a law and order problem in the streets, but the welfare situation is out of hand. During the past year, leaders of a welfare recipients union urged reliefers to apply for every conceivable type of aid. When the city finally cut back certain specialized welfare programs and combined welfare payments to individuals and families in a single package, some of the reliefers stormed the welfare offices and damaged public records.

The crisis in New York

It now turns out that in the last fiscal year the city budgeted more for welfare than for education.

What is to be done about these cities that are on the verge of total breakdown? This a question the new Congress will have to ponder. New York City and several other cities are in trouble because they have lost so many of their blue-collar and white-collar citizens who have a sense of civic pride and because they have been invaded by swarms of drones who intend to make a lifetime career of relief at public expense.

The hard-working, self-reliant citizens will not return to live in the central cities unless and until something is done about the masses of arrogant and often lawless people who are now living on welfare hand-outs. What seems to be needed is relocation of substantial numbers of such dependent persons to areas where they can learn for themselves the civilities and disciplines of responsible community life. While no hard and fast answers are now available, it seems possible that a major, drastic overhaul of the laws on federal welfare assistance could be an instrument for accomplishing the needed relocation of dependent persons.

Many of the so-called "solutions" to economic and social problems have been a total failure. Congress needs to reexamine national problems, such as the problem of New York City, in new, dynamic ways. A free republic can't coexist with a rootless, lawless proletariat in its major cities. Ways must be found to transform this proletariat into a mass of law-abiding, self-supporting citizens.

Dr. Charles B. Williams, now deceased, was president of the old Howard College in Birmingham years ago, about 1917, I think. He was first a scholar, and after that a member of a human denomination. He translated the New Testament from the original Greek into modern English and called his translation "The New Testament in the Language of the People." It's a good English translation, especially on such passages as Romans 8:28 and 1 John 1:7, where the continuing action of the verbs is important.

In Romans 8:28, Dr. Williams translates the Greek to say in modern English: "Yes, we know that all things go on working together for the good of those who keep on loving God, who are called in accordance with God's purpose." Then two are enlightened concerning this purpose of God, when we read Dr. Williams' translation of 2 Timothy 1:9, 10: "For He saved us and called us with a holy call, not in accordance with anything we had done, but in accordance with His own purpose and unmerited favor, which was shown us through union with Christ Jesus eternal ages ago, but has only recently been made known through the appearance of our Savior, Christ Jesus, who through the good news has put a stop to the power of death and brought life and immortality to light."

I demonstrate Dr. Williams' stand above any human creed by quoting from his translation a part of 2 Peter 2:20-22: "For if after men have escaped the corrupting ways of the world through a full knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they again become entangled in them and are conquered by them, then the last condition is worse than their former one. For it would have been better for them never to have known the way of uprightness than to have known it and turn their backs on the sacred command committed to their trust." Verse 22 is about the same as in the King James. This translation will help you understand the King James version better. Get it?

primary election a couple of campaigns back which revealed that the Social S-was budgeted for police and fire protection.

This situation isn't a matter solely for the concern of New Yorkers. Fifty per cent of New York's welfare costs are borne by the federal government—that is, by taxpayers throughout the country.

Aside from taxes they pay for welfare in New York City, Americans elsewhere in the nation have cause for concern about the metropolis because it is the principal financial and commercial center in the nation. The continued deterioration and disruption of New York City could adversely affect business in many parts of the United States. Americans simply can't allow their largest city to be plunged into chaos and overcome by savagery in the streets. Nor is New York the only city that is getting out of hand. Several other big cities have become bottomless pits insofar as welfare is concerned. They have become the focus of rioting and other forms of strife.

What is to be done about these cities that are on the verge of total breakdown? This a question the new Congress will have to ponder. New York City and several other cities are in trouble because they have lost so many of their blue-collar and white-collar citizens who have a sense of civic pride and because they have been invaded by swarms of drones who intend to make a lifetime career of relief at public expense.

In Romans 8:28, Dr. Williams translates the Greek to say in modern English: "Yes, we know that all things go on working together for the good of those who keep on loving God, who are called in accordance with God's purpose." Then two are enlightened concerning this purpose of God, when we read Dr. Williams' translation of 2 Timothy 1:9, 10: "For He saved us and called us with a holy call, not in accordance with anything we had done, but in accordance with His own purpose and unmerited favor, which was shown us through union with Christ Jesus eternal ages ago, but has only recently been made known through the appearance of our Savior, Christ Jesus, who through the good news has put a stop to the power of death and brought life and immortality to light."

I demonstrate Dr. Williams' stand above any human creed by quoting from his translation a part of 2 Peter 2:20-22: "For if after men have escaped the corrupting ways of the world through a full knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they again become entangled in them and are conquered by them, then the last condition is worse than their former one. For it would have been better for them never to have known the way of uprightness than to have known it and turn their backs on the sacred command committed to their trust." Verse 22 is about the same as in the King James. This translation will help you understand the King James version better. Get it?

Nov. 15 - Cries of joy rose Monday morning when snow started falling over JBP. To our sorrow it didn't stick and we had to remain in school all day.

The 11-Y installation scheduled for Tuesday was postponed due to parents' night. This will probably be held Tuesday, Nov. 19.

The large turn-out Tuesday night indicates that a lot of parents are very interested in their children. The weather made it impossible for some parents to attend, so perhaps we can schedule a parents' night again sometime.

When English people see a show of talent that they really like they say, "Jolly good show, old chap." To the chaps in the choir that performed at parents' night, we say "Jolly good show." Under the direction of Mr. Randy Simon, the choir sang a variety of songs.

The Student Council and presidents of all the clubs at Pennington held a special meeting Thursday morning and were asked by Mr. C. L. Harris, mayor of Blountsville, to cooperate in a clean-up campaign sponsored by the city, council and civic clubs of the town. The slogan is "Blountsville, Beauty Is Our Civic Duty."

Many ways were suggested for the students and clubs to cooperate. Bulletin boards and posters have been arranged, and classes are planning to clean and beautify specific areas. Plans will be completed and work started the morning of November 18. It is hoped that by November 22 we will have a clean school town and community. You will hear more about this

Nov. 15 - This week's cold weather created a new atmosphere at HHS. Everyone wrapped up in a new coat and raced for a radiator.

During parents' night at PTA Monday, homeroom teachers were presented with gifts, and the women were given a coronation sages.

Parents visited a room and inquired from the teachers about their children's work. The seniors won the prize for having the most parents present.

Since the arrival of senior portraits Tuesday, everyone's been very busy swapping pictures.

Wednesday afternoon, the play staff stayed after school to practice. Mr. Kellum, who is in charge of this project, is doing a great job. The play will be put on right before Christmas. Work hard, team!

All the seniors went to the Birmingham Friday afternoon to sell annual ads. We will have a report from them next week.

PTA dues were due Monday. I hope everyone got theirs in on time. There is a rumor going around that initiation time is coming up pretty soon, so stand guard (freemen).

The week we students want to salute Mr. Reid, our guidance counselor. The interest he is showing for everyone, especially us seniors, is just tremendous. Everyone at our school feels so close to Mr. Reid that his office stays full of students seeking help. Thank you, Mr. Reid, for being so interested. We'll never forget it.

for their kindness and concern following their accident.

Thursday brought a change which everyone seemed to enjoy to the senior high girls PE class. Girls covered the football field and sounded off during their exercises. Instead of playing the usual game of basketball we played challenge ball.

The third edition of the Panther Prowl is expected to be out this week.

The students in the senior government class are working on a new project. Mr. Ellis passed out poster paper Friday and asked everyone to hand in an impact poster Monday. Watch for these posters in the hall.

Nov. 15 - This week began with a patriotic theme as the National Honor Society gave an assembly program in honor of Veterans Day and National Education Week. (See related article on this page.)

The FHA held a dinner meeting at the Blue Joe's Restaurant. The guest speaker was Miss Rhonda Ellen Burkha, a high school senior from Fairview High School who is state parliamentarian and president of our district. She gave a very enjoyable speech on the state theme "To Know, To Care, To Do."

The junior football team ended its season. The team and the cheerleaders would like to thank the student body for their cooperation and spirit which helped to make this a great season. These two groups have been a credit to our school and we are very proud of them.

Thursday night our popularity was held around a bonfire. This pep rally judged on percentage of the class that plans to attend Jacksonville State University. He is being trained in stockkeeping and delivery by Mr. Jackie Harmon at J&H Hardware Company.

Nov. 15 - This week has been one of the most exciting ever.

Mr. Wilson's announcement to the seniors that the class rings would be here Friday brought enthusiastic applause and excitement that lingered throughout the week. When we were called to get the rings Friday, everyone rushed down the hall to Mrs. Murphy's room and waited his turn. Cameras flashed and laughter filled the air as everyone proudly displayed his ring. The rest of the day the seniors ran around showing their rings as if they had never seen one before. It was really a happy day.

This week has also been filled with work. The annual staff has worked hard to complete the shipment due December first.

The Miss Yearbook contestants are still working hard. The first elimination will be next Wednesday. Everyone is sure to support your favorite contestant.

We are sorry that Mrs. Rayfield has been in the hospital and unable to attend school for the last few days. We wish her a speedy recovery.

The Hornets traveled to Hayden to challenge the Wildcats Friday night. The boys taking part in the scoring for the Hornets were: G. Owens, Gary Cash, Benny and Kenny Washburn, Robert Smith, and Mark Matthews.

Outstanding defensive players were Wesley Loggins, Dennis Wilson, Randy, and Larry Cash. Frankie Love and Keith Hallman. Number 34 made the touch down for the Wildcats.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

I am a small city police chief and a short time ago while in the process of arresting an ex-felon, I suffered a heart attack. At the time of the attack, I was pursuing a College Police Science degree in addition to my regular police duties. Ironically, I was lacking 5 credits and was age 45 at the time.

While I was hospitalized, a police officer friend loaned me a copy of the excellent book which you had written "Masters OF Deceit". I was so impressed with your work that I would like to purchase a copy for my police library. Enclosed is check covering the cost.

One favor to ask though? I would be pleased and highly honored if my book copy could be personally autographed by you, Mr Law Enforcement.

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover
Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I thought I would keep you current in regard to your grand book, "Masters of Deceit". As of this date, SLED's agents here in South Carolina each have a copy of your book and I have sent 80 to our South Carolina Highway Dept., to be given to the men in the field and also the key personnel.

I feel that our law enforcement agencies should be the first to receive these books. I am in hopes to consetratre next on the South Carolina House of Representatives.

Enclosed, you will find several letters from various people in the response to your book which, as you will note, is most favorable.

In reference to your letter of January 24, I hope that this brutal slaying, as tragic as it was, will awaken and keep alert your men in dealing with a killer, such as was apprehended; best safety lies in having fear. I am sorry that you were unable to supply the advice which I inquired about in regard to the Charleston County police Dept.; but I believe that the only way this can be handled is on a local level by local people. I would like to make personal mention of what I consider an ourstanding man in his duties, Chief Strom of the S. C. Law Enforecement Div. deserves personal mention and I hold him in high personal regard. My deepest hopes are that the American people will again elect and select men on the basis of character into all our high offices of trust. There has been a bankruptcy of leadership in the American tradition. These offices must again be filled with men, such as you; men with national character.

I remain,

Sincerely,

Dear [redacted]:

I have received your letter of April 15th, with enclosure, and want to thank you for your kind remarks regarding my work.

With respect to your request, we do not have a supply of my book, "Masters of Deceit," for distribution. If you are unable to secure copies of it in your local bookstores, the standard hardback edition may be obtained by writing directly to the publishers, Holt, Rinehart and Winston, Inc., 383 Madison Avenue, New York, New York 10017. Also, you probably would like to know that Pocket Books, Inc., 630 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10020, has published paper-bound copies of it. They can be purchased from the Mail Service Department of Pocket Books, Inc.

Your check is being returned to you.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover.

Dear Senator McClellan: Masters of Deceit
I have before me Lou Schneider's Column in which he writes the following:

"Several major investigations are under way in both houses of Congress. Most meaningful is that of Sen. John L. McClellan, Chairman of the Operations Permanent Suvestigation sub-committee. He is digging into the causes of school riots."

"Senator, I do not understand why you should have to dig so hard into the causes when all you would have to do is consult Mr. J. Edgar Hoover. He'll give you the answers pronto. I have before me the following:

"One of the most militant organizations now engaged in activities protesting U.S. foreign policy is a student youth group called Students for a Democratic Society.
Communists are actively promoting and participating in the activities of this organization, which is self-styled as a group of liberals and radicals."

Testimony of John Edgar Hoover, Director,
Federal Bureau of Investigation, United States Department of Justice, Before the House
Sub-Committee on Appropriation on 2/18/1966

On 6/11/69, [redacted] telephoned the Bureau and said that about two months earlier she had mailed a copy of "Masters of Deceit" to the Director requesting his autograph on it. She enclosed a return envelope but had not received the return of the book.

A careful check of Bureau records fails to indicate that this book was ever received and [redacted] cannot be identified in Bufiles. The Kansas City, Missouri, telephone directory indicates that her husband, [redacted] is in real estate with an office at Commerce Tower.

On 6/16/69, [redacted] was telephonically advised that there was no indication the book she sent had been received by the Director. She stated that she had not insured the book nor had it been registered. Accordingly, it appears there is no way to attempt to trace this mailing. She added that she had intended the book as a gift for [redacted] 19 Berkley Lane, St. Louis, Missouri, who is a personal friend and whom she described as a great admirer of the FBI. [redacted] is not identifiable in Bufiles. She said that she may buy another book and submit it to be autographed.

ENCLOSURE

A further Hoover statement concerning the menace of Communism follows:

Q To make the United States a communist nation is the ambition of every Party member, regardless of position or rank. He works constantly to make this dream a reality, to steal your rights, liberties, and property. Even though he lives in the United States, he is a supporter of a foreign power, espousing an alien line of thought. He is a conspirator against his country.

D The communist is thinking in terms of now, in your lifetime. Remember that within four decades communism, as a state power, has spread through roughly 40 per cent of the world's population and 25 per cent of the earth's surface. Some years ago communists were complaining that their "fatherland," Soviet Russia, was encircled, a communist island in a "capitalist" sea. Today the situation is changed. The world communist movement is on the march, into Germany, the Balkans, the Middle East, stretching across the plains of Asia into China, Korea, and Indochina. Communists have never won over an entire country by a free election and have never hesitated to shed blood if this would best serve their purposes. Moreover, in noncommunist countries thousands of Party members are working for Moscow. Communists firmly believe they are destined to conquer the world.

This belief is held in the United States too. A disciplined Party of hard-core fanatical members is now at work, with their fellow travelers, sympathizers, opportunists, and dupes. Communists in our country, though small in numbers, do not feel lonely. They have faith in the "big Red brother" who will come to their help. William Z. Foster's hope, a Red America, is today inspiring thousands of Party members and sympathizers to determined effort. They want to add America to Soviet Russia's list of conquest."

MASTERS of Deceit

Dear Mr. Hoover,

Last week I called, "Strombeck's" (a bookstore at 1210 5th Ave. Moline, Ill.), and asked if they had a copy of "Masters of Deceit" by J. Edgar Hoover. I was told they didn't have your book. If I wanted a copy, I would have to get it from the John Birch Society.

I think this is an odd statement for a book store to tell a prospective customer.

Sir,

I have just read a reference to your great book 'MASTERS OF DECEIT' in THE TRUTH CRUSADER of Harrisonburg, Virginia.

You have done much to arouse the U.S.A. Mrs. Smith, Eunice (our Daughter) and I, are missionaries in Brazil. We have been here many years. We are seeking to arouse Britain also as things are very bad there also.

I wonder if a used copy of your book could be found to enlighten us.

Thanking you, and praying God's blessing on your efforts,

 Washington, D. C. 20535

Dear Mr. Hoover:

As a former employee of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and as a private American citizen, I very much admire the work you have been doing in law enforcement for many years.

I am writing this letter to you in my capacity as President of the Huntemann-Huff Unit #110 of the American Legion Auxiliary in Mt. Rainier, Maryland. The Unit is holding an Americanism Meeting on Monday, November 10, 1969, at our Post Home. At that time we would like to present a copy of your book, Masters of Deceit, to the Karl A. Young Memorial Library. Would you oblige us by writing a suitable inscription if we forward a copy of the book to you? MARYLAND

I thank you very much for considering this request.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I am presently at work on a Masters thesis on the Abraham Lincoln Brigade. I am primarily interested in methods of recruitment, motivation of the volunteers and any disenchantment they may have experienced. In your book Masters of Deceit you indicate that, "American communists used glittering promises, underhanded tricks, and downright fraud to coax young men to go to Spain."

Arthur H. Landis in his book The Abraham Lincoln Brigade specifically disputes your statement. Could you possibly advise me how I may document your allegations?

Any assistance or guidance you might give me will be most appreciated.

I have received your letter of October 27th.

While it would indeed be a pleasure to meet with [redacted] the daily commitments of my official duties prevent me from scheduling an appointment. However, I do wish to extend an invitation to [redacted] and [redacted] to tour the facilities of the FBI Headquarters upon their forthcoming visit to Washington. These tours are conducted each day from 9:15 a. m. to 4:15 p. m. excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays.

Dear Director Hoover:

As the new Director of Young Americans for Freedom's Student Competition Office, I am making arrangements for the winner of last year's MASTERS OF DECEIT Contest, [redacted] of Suffolk, Virginia, to visit Washington, D. C. [redacted] has expressed a desire to meet with you.

Would it be possible for you to give her five or ten minutes of your time? We have not determined exactly when her trip will be, but it will probably be some time around Thanksgiving. She will be accompanied by a friend, [redacted] also of Suffolk.

Sincerely,

[redacted signature]

Student Competition Director
